which point events lead to a powerful finale.
"The Maid of Belgium," featuring Alice Brady, holds the screen today.
Other attractions for the week are:

Tomorrow, Vivian Martin, in "The Trouble-Buster;" Thursday, Ethel Barrymore, in "Life's Whirlpool;" Friday, Emily Stevens, in "The Slacker;" Saturday, Ann Pennington, in "The Antics of Ann."

CRANDALL'S AVENUE GRAND.

adjudged winners. The popularity of these contests is steadily increasing.

Tomorrow night a prize waltzing contest will be held.

$1,000,000 PLANT BURNS DESPITE STRICT GUARD

NEW YORK, Dec. 4-Although marded by a force of United States soldiers as it turned out Government orders, the Morse Dry Dock and Re-pair Company, on the South Brooklyn water front, last night was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $1,000,000 suppose that examinations of the eye are simple matters and that any or all glasses through which one can see clearly are the right ones to use.

It isn't always a matter of seeing plainly, but of of seeing plainly, but of getting the glasses through which we see normally and without a tax on the eyes,

It is a question of get ting the ones that give comfort with safety.

comfort with safety.

That's why it is sometimes dangerous to select glasses from the vendor and inadvisable to consult anyone unqualified to thoroughly diagnose each case and prescribe the proper remedy.

If you experience any trouble with your sight, consult an Geulist. He is qualified to give you the proper relief.

Then, if glasses are on.

Then, if glasses are or-dered, take his prescrip-tion to an optician who is equally qualified to carry or his instructions.

142 H Street N.W.

Senthern Bldg. We do NOT Examine Eyes

"This Talk" from a copyright se

A story of infinite charm, strong in ts heart appeal, is told in "Sunshine

Ethel

FOR BILLY SUNDAY

If a house with that number of sons nave crewded the galleries of the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts at each of the concerts given thus far. In planning the "musicales" the committee of the academy wanted to "fill the need of music for the people on Sunday" and to give music in "sympathele surroundings."

Although hundreds of seats are provided, a complete informality reigns.

Although hundreds of seats are provided, a complete informality reigns at the concerts. Those so moved walk applicated so roundly that the final curtain and from gallery to gallery viewing the paintings while listening to the music. Some of the leading musicians in the ing with the stirring days of 1708, country have been engaged. Ancient when the Sons of Erin dependent Quaker "blue laws" keep Philadelphia upon aid from France made an unclosed on Sunday. It is, however, permissible to give satertainments where me admission fee is charged. The con-certs will be continued as long as with music that makes its auditors the contributed funds last. He knows the Irish character

Advance warning of the pleasure in and he knows how Irish music restore for Washington on the arrival veals it. Last night he led the symtwo remaining days of the week.

of Cohan & Harris' new musical play, phony orchestra of thirty pieces himphony orchestra of thirty pieces himgoing Up," did not fully prepare the
was called to the stage for a speech.

Locw's Columbia.

Which Eleanor Dusc was the star some first nighters for the delightful evening's entertainment they experienced that in the last two acts, at least. Who wants to lend Billy Sunday a was continuous, musical numbers that heme in which to live while he is con-ducting his great drive against the dwell in Washington? Or who wants to rent him a home?

Here are a few facts which may give you an idea of what is requisite in a residence for the great evangelist.

Last not only is good to look at but can sing and dance, an appropriate stage setting and gorgeous frocks that a mere man cannot describe, and a cast that left little to be desired The house must have at least ten are some of the reasons that last night's audience found "Going Up" even more entertaining than had been expected.

at the National last night.

If a house with that number of sleeping rooms cannot be found, two houses side by side will have to be utilized.

It need not be elegantly furnished. Bathrooms must be plentiful. If the house has library and other specially designed quarters, these may be turned into bedrooms. An idea of the size of the accommodations necessary for the Sunday party can be gained from speculation as to the rooms and accommodations needed to make fourteen people comfortable. That is the number in Billy's party, including himself and "Ma" Sunday—all personal workers except the choir leader, Homer Rodhaswer, and two planiats.

Billy opens up against sin in washington January 8. Inability to find a sultable residence for the Sunday party is giving Dr. James E. Walker and members of the campaign committee considerable worry. If you have a home that you think might suit, you can lift a load of woorry by communicating with Dr. Walker at Room 801, Washington Loan and Trust Building.

BURGLAR IS FOUND DEAD IN OFFICE HE WOULD ROB

CLIFTON, Va, Dac. 4.—The authorities of Fairfax county are today seeking to learn the identity of the sure may be a short the loan that he has refused to marry his rival unless he is victor.

With this at stake he decides to risk everything and make the fight. Of course, the expected in a musical show happens, and the real aviator lands while Street is still doing unless he is victor.

With this at stake he decides to risk everything and make the fight. Of course, the expected in a musical show happens, and the real aviator lands while Street is still doing unless he is victor.

With this at stake he decides to risk everything and make the fight. Of course, the expected in a musical show happens, and the real aviator lands while Street is still doing unless he is victor.

With this at take he decides to risk everything and make the fight. While the aforesaid Mr. While the aforesaid Mr. While the aforesaid Mr. A practical mechanician ophical he for the fight and not "welch." Both of the contestants are in love wi was called to the stage for a speech.

BIGHOUSE SOUGHT Varied Attractions at the Capital Playhouses FOLK SONGS OF

Given Herbert's music, one of the best singing companies ever seen here do their part in making the opera a success. Walter Scanlan, as stories, with Marguerite Clark as the bold. Magda is a beautiful girl with

Then there are several march arias

Had Left the Apple on the Bough."
Olga Roller as Lady Maude Estabrooke sings "Life's a Game at Best" in duet with Edward Martindel, and they were forced to respond to several

Henry Blossom, who supplied the book and lyrics, presents a dashing youth in Captain O'Day, who, upon being hunted by the red coats, finds refuge in the castle of Lady Estabologoe as a footman. Then he wins the heart of the ward of his bene factress and outwits his trailers at According to the management the coarse wins. Betaved by a gay amore companies to the management the coarse wins. Betaved by a gay amore companies to the management the coarse wins. Betaved by a gay amore companies to the management the coarse wins betaves the coarse was the Pathe production of Victor was the Victor was the Victor was the Victor was the Victor was every turn. Betrayed by a spy among this own people, he is finally captured, but saved from death by an eleventh, hour pardon from the king.

A lively chorus of colleens enhances each presentation of the Brenon plo-

Billy Watson and his slide are day. week, where the popular comedian is "Burleaque heading the Wonder some of the best-known people in offered for the first part of the week burlesque and the entertainment they at Moore's Garden Theater. There make "The Bething Girl" as presented this week at the Lyceum Thester, a success.

Charlie Graham, as Snuffy Pickles, made a hit with his song, "Mr.
Booze" Queenic Powers appeared to advantage in a number of songs, withers of the company include Gue Mortimer, Blanche Wilcox, Mae Alton, George Testers and Will Coldwell.

Through Thursday the feature of the program will be "Piesse Help Emity." a picturization of the Prohman comedy in which Ann Murdock is nimed in her original role.

KNICKERBOCKER.

"The Little Princess," the newest Mary Pickford film, was the attraction at Crandall's Knickerbocker last night here.

dance. Headsome consultones and accomb reflects add to the attractiveness of the abow.

CRANDALL'S.

"Her Hour," with Kitty Gordon, pictured in the certical role, was yesterlay's attraction at Crandall's. It is melodrama, having to do with the afrairs of Rita Castle, a working Jil, who resents the advances of a floor walker and loses her place. This has several other misfortures in store for her, at a result of which she becomes embitured and a change in her entire nature results. He the saling and Morgians.

The attraction for today and tempts and consecut to lead the life her amployer directs. From this point, events follow each other in rapid succession to a strong onturing Ann Pennington is today's attraction. For tomorrow and Thursday, the attraction will be "The Outsider." featuring Ethel Barrymore. will hold the screen Esturdsy. raction. For temorrow and intra-ar, the attractler, will be "The Out-der," featuring Emmy Weblen. Clara Kimball Young gives a thor-pen" films, featuring Marguerite oughly pleasing interpretation of the here do their part in making the opera a success. Walter Scanlan, as stories, with Marguerits Clark as the copera a success. Walter Scanlan, as stories, with Marguerits Clark as the copera a success. Walter Scanlan, as stories, with Marguerits Clark as the should be the will of the whole house for the past of the past of the past of the church falls in love with her selections. His duet, "Thine Alone," and her efforts to salvage with Irene Rowan, who is cast as the show in which her ided is starwith Irene Rowan, who is cast as the show in which her ided is starwing the sung and whistled ing after the play leaves the Capined. Through her machinations a stories, with Marguerits Clark as the should be the will of the whole house should be the will of the whole house. titled Englishman is kicked from Then there are several march arias to stir the souls of all sons and daughters of Erin. Of these "Glad Triumphant Hour." "The Irish Have a Great Day Tonight," and "Ireland. My Sireland," are notable.

Scott Weish, who once starred in "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," has a prominent role, and is in the limelight frequently in leading rous-limelight frequently in leading rous-limelight frequently in leading roushas a prominent role, and is in the limelight frequently in leading rousing ensemble numbers.

Algernon Grieg, the one character who is not Irish, contributes some clever acting and scored with "If Eve Had Left the Apple on the Bough."

Had Left the Apple on the Bough."

STRAND.

The photoplay feature of the bill at Moore's Strand Theater last night was the Pathe production of Victor

And there at Room Sott. Washington and of Free Building.

BURGLAR IS FOUND DEAD.

N OFFICE HE WOULD RO.

CLIFTON, Ve. De. 4—The author.

His of Fairfax county are dought as the mechanicism owined, he from the man who dropped deed which the he will be in this man who dropped deed which the he will be in the mindant of the rank of the property of the will man about forty.

When Portineters II. In Rudgle William Portineters II. In Rudgle William South of the work of the same and the read within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will man about forty will be provided within the property of the will make the sense why at the property of the will make the sense will be provided within the property of the will make the property of the will make the sense will be provided within the property of the will make the property of the will be a fairness to the property of the

which will be shown founy and to-morrow. "Easy Money," with Ethel Clayton in the central role, will be shown Thursday, "The Fettered Wo-man," featuring Al'ce Joyce, on Fri-day, and "The Call of the East," featuring Sessue Hayakawa, on Satur

GARDEN.

Snap Judgment." featuring Wil-Surrounding Watson are Main Russell, was the screen thriller burlesque and the entertainment they offer abounds in mirth and music. Two burlettas are offered, the opening one bearing the title of "The Cafe de Graft," in which Watson appears as the head waiter. "A liferry Mix-Up" is the cloning number with Watson disguised as a clock maker. May Dix has two lively sombrette roles, and her "Southern Girls" song was one of the features of the show. Katherine Page appeared to advantage in a number of songs, while others in the company who appeared included Hazel Josesiyn, Charles First, Owen Martin, and Paul Sherman. Luiu Coates and her "Three Crackerjacks" soured a big hit with a singing and dancing number. The chorus is one of the best seen at the Gayetty this season, while the constumes and scenic effects are above the average.

At Moore's Garden Theater. There was action every foot of the way, including a large amount of daredevil in the country that had a guard of low solding and some of the most delightfully whole-harted, two-flated, nerve-tear-flated, nerve-tear-LYCEUM.

A succession of laughable situations, together with a tuneful score, make "The Bething Girl" as pre-

The chorus is composed of pretty circle who know how to sing and cidedly pleasing. It is an adaptation like the two add to the attractiveness of the ahow.

MOUNTAINERS WIN AUDIENCE

It was somewhere on the borderland of 1800 that the Washington Soclety of the Fine Arts transported its large audience last evening, who were given a touch of lavender and old lace if the picture presented by Loraine Wyman—even though it really was a white satin gown—and who journeyed the footpaths of the mountains of Kentucky by means of the grauline American balladry that Miss Wyman, the gifted pupil of Yvette Guilbert, and Howard Brockway, composer and pianist, have hunted out and presented as "The Lonesome Tunes."

This quaint folk-lore recital was the second in the series of five concerts that are being given in the auditorium of the Central High School, Both Miss Wyman and Mr. Brockway told of their tramp of 300 miles through country where the stranger had never penetrated and each transported to the many miles around in households, and many persons are remaining behind locked doors.

Raports from various centers that the convicts had fired on or otherwise attacked taxicabs, farm wagons, and intermany miles around in households, and many persons are remaining behind
locked doors.

Raports from various centers that the
locked doors.

Raports from various center sire a udience last evening, who were given a touch of lavender and old lace in the picture presented by Loraine Wyman—even though it really was a white satin gown—and who journeyed the footpaths of the mountains of Kentucky by means of the genuine American balladry that Miss Wyman, the gifted pupil of Yvette Gulibert, and Howard Brockway, composer and planist, have hunted out and presented as "The Lonesome Tunes."

This quaint folk-lore recital was the second in the series of five concerts that are being given in the auditorium of the Central High School, Both Miss Wyman and Mr. Brockway told of their tramp of 300 miles through country where the stranger had never penetrated, and each in a most individual way gave a fund of local color to the narrative.

It makes us feel like a young nation when here in our own time can be sought out such a wealth of native songs—for they have eighty as the result of their search—and these were resulted by the posses will give battle. Ten years later a great musical festival is arranged for the town, and Magda, now a famous singer known as Madalene Dall'Orto, appears as the principal artiste. Recognized, she is induced by the pastor, who still loves her, to return to her father's home, which she does upon the express condition that no questions shall be asked concerning her life during the ten years that have intervened. Then a surprising discovery is made, from songs-for they have eighty as the result of their search—and these were found as a heritage passed by word of mouth from generation to generation back in the Kentucky mountains.

The music is in three forms, narrative, love source and child love.

According to the management the change was made because Father III. dor, referred to at times as the "mad monk," declined to appear in person upon the stage at the Strand after each presentation of the Brenon picture. The management, it seems, had advertised his personal appear, and render unusually effective charachase with the understanding that terisations. It is a thoroughly homely patrons of the house would have the story, unmarked by big "punches," plant of the story of the music is in three forms, narrative, love songs and child-lore. It was interest, beauty and diversity. Mr. Brockway in the piano accompaniments he has composed for them has given them a tone-picture setting that the story of the house would have the story, unmarked by big "punches," plant of the music is in three forms, narrative, love songs and child-lore. It was interest, beauty and diversity. Mr. Brockway in the piano accompaniments he has composed for them has given them a tone-picture setting that the story of the music is in three forms, narrative, love songs and child-lore. It is interest, beauty and diversity. Mr. Brockway in the piano accompaniments he accompaniments he piano acco

500 JOIN PURSUIT OF 13 CONVICTS ESCAPING JOLIET

escaped yesterday from the State Pent. Important centers.

COUNT MINOTTO SCORES.

Count James Minotto, son-in-law of Louis Swift, the Chicago packer, has won another point in his fight against being interned for the period of the war. The Bureau of Immigration has directed that the case be reopened and

SOCIALISTS THREATEN REVOLT IN BARCELONA

MADRID, Dec. 4.—Demonstrations bordering on riot are in progress to-day at Barcelons, the leaders being socialists and republicans, says as Threats have been made against the government if amnesty is not granted shortly to the socialists condemned for participation in the uprising last August. The republican and socialist elements, it is said, are seeking to carry their fight to all

Dr. Wyeth and Staff of Expert, Careful, Skilled Dentists

Doesn't seem possible, does it? Yet that's exactly what I do, for my work is made to last. Should any defect develop within that time come to me and I will repair it without charge or refund you the money originally paid. All work nations. Dentistry That Lasts That has been my record for the past 22 years. Everything that will add to the com-fort of our patients is provided. Cleanliness is one of our many striking features. Every in-strument must be thoroughly sterilized before using.

Terms of Payment to Suit. Examination Fre-

Fillings, 50c to $1 up. In gold, silver, amalgam or porcelain.

Gold Crown and Bridge Work, $3.00—$4.00 -$5.00

DR. WYETH, Opposite Lansburgh & Bro., and over Grand Union Tea Co. Largest and Heat Theroughly Equipped Partors 427-29 7th St. N. W. in Washington. Phane Main 6334.

"Franklin" Enlarged

HE Franklin central office, opened on September 1st, has been enlarged to meet the growing demands for telephone facilities.

The telephone numbers of many Main, North and Lincoln subscribers have been changed to Franklin.

A new telephone directory containing the new numbers is being distributed

Please consult the new directory before making calls.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company

Candy is Food

as an official ration for soldiers. At the Army Training Camps it is in constant ishment as well as pleasure, if you are careful to choose the kinds which are made largely of materials other than cane or beet sugar. We recommend:

Molasses candies Marshmallows

Cake chocolate Glace fruits

CORNER 12TH AND F STREETS 1784 COLUMBIA ROAD RIGGS BUILDING

Send candy to your soldier, but avoid the damage and delay of parcel post and express by using our Army Delivery Service, which delivers your order at the Trainng Camp in perfect condition and almost immediately.

Many governments recognize candy demand.

Children crave candy because their busy little bodies require the fuel it

Help Us Save Sugar

In these war-times you can conscientiously continue to eat candy, for nour-

Assorted chocolates